Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for one's fellow man; and,

Whereas, Doris Heine has been on faculty at the University of South Dakota Department of Nursing for 12 years, and has worked in the nursing field for many years; and,

Whereas, Doris is well known for her involvement in professional nursing activities within the state of South Dakota, her community, and health care delivery settings; and,

Whereas, Doris is a nurse who has been an inspiration to both students and faculty at the University of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Doris has devoted her life to the betterment of her community, the caring and sharing with family and friends and the day-to-day giving and loving that makes South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

Whereas, Doris is retiring from the University of South Dakota Department of Nursing on May 12, 2004, which coincides with Florence Nightingale's birth date; and,

Whereas, It has now come time for Doris to retire in Vermillion, South Dakota, allowing her and her husband, Bud, to spend time with their lovely family; and,

Whereas, It is altogether fitting and proper to recognize the contribution and devotion of this employee and her many years of exemplary performance:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 12, 2004, as in South Dakota, and I join her family, friends and colleagues in offering Doris best wishes for a healthy, happy, and enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-third Day of April in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Four.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
